News & Updates

Community Concern Form

Help Eastmark maintain its character and high-quality community standards by reporting any issues or concerns that require the attention of your Eastmark Community Life team. Log in to residents.eastmark.com and look for the orange "Community Concern" button in the top right corner.

Groups & Clubs

Check the Community Calendar for current meeting schedules. To view a list of all Eastmark clubs or to start a group of your own visit residents.eastmark.com.

Animal Lovers of Eastmark

If you are a pet parent or wildlife enthusiast, or maybe you just like animals, this is the club for you! Our goal is to form strong bonds in the community & to improve the lives of animals, all while having fun. Our casual meetings will take place around the community and may involve learning new animal facts, talking about our pets or planning special projects!

Astronomy Club of Eastmark

Neighborhood stargazers and space enthusiasts gather to talk all things astronomy and explore the universe through star parties and other events.

Beer Club at Eastmark

Craft beer enthusiasts unite! Join the monthly meetup to sip and socialize over local brews.

Bible Study for the Non-Religious

Whether the Bible is familiar or new to you, its contents will transform your life and bring answers to your biggest questions.

Book Club

Dive into the fiction book of choice and then discuss it with neighbors.

Come2Gether@Eastmark

This club's goal is to bring people together to diversify the community experience through planned activities.

Colorful Creations Coloring Book Club

This will be a casual once a month gathering of women who like to color! Bring your coloring books, pens/pencils. There are free printable coloring pages online so no need to buy a book if you don't want to. Adults only, please.

Craft Club

Work on a designated-for-one type of craft or bring a project you're working on.

Disc Golf

This club engages the community while growing the sport of disc golf. Join them to make new friends and play the discO.

East of Ellsworth

Get to know neighbors while participating in activities and visiting restaurants and venues available for entertainment close to home.

Eastmark Car Club

A group of fellow auto aficionados who meet up to share camaraderie, community, and really cool cars.

Eastmark Entrepreneurs

Resident business owners network monthly at The 'Mark, and other locations.

Eastmark Golf Club

We foster further connections with residents who have a common enjoyment of the game of golf. We are an all-inclusive club adding members daily from all Eastmark neighborhoods and all skill levels. Our club is run by volunteers who do this for the love of the game of golf and to connect golfers with golfers here in Eastmark.

East Valley Master Brick Builders

Kids and teens let their imaginations run free after learning a new build concept.

East Valley Progressives

Engage in open discussions, teamwork, and inclusive advocacy for positive change. We believe in unity, empathy, and action for a fairer society. Let's empower and support each other to build a brighter community!

Elementary Art Club

Art class for kids in kindergarten through 3rd grade. Children learn about various art media and have the opportunity to express their creativity.

Everyday Esoterics at Eastmark

For the savvy seeker, magical minded, and quantumly curious resident who is either wanting to learn or teach to grow a deeper understanding of one's individual and unique self.

The Freebirds Club 50+

A group for seasoned residents who are retired or near retirement and are ready to have some fun as they enter a new chapter in life.

FunityFit

A group where neighbors and friends can meet to exercise, have fun, support, and encourage one other. Fitness opportunities include dance fitness, weights/strength training, cardio fitness, boot camp workouts, hikes, and walks or runs.

Gaming Club at Eastmark

Share gaming interests with your neighbors in a positive atmosphere. Gaming activities include (but are not limited to) tabletop games, board games, card games, and video games.

Homeschool Christian Science Club

All school aged kids are welcome to gather and study science from a biblical worldview via hands-on activities. Curriculum is geared towards grades K-8.

I Run at Eastmark

Encouraging a healthy and active lifestyle by uniting runners of all levels to celebrate fitness, the outdoors, and building new friendships with neighbors. Whether you're an experienced runner or just beginning your fitness journey, everyone is welcome. Bring the kids, and let's enjoy our beautiful neighborhood together!

Indo-American Cultural Club

A club dedicated to preserving and promoting Indian cultural heritage through the celebration of Indian festivals. By organizing events and activities, the club aims to foster a greater understanding of Indian traditions, values, and customs among its members and the broader community.

Knit & Crochet Fiber Artists

Share knowledge and expertise while building a community of fellow fiber artists.

Luckyputts Golf Club

An official Arizona Golf Association golf club for male golfers who are 18 years or older. The club's goals are simple: camaraderie, fun, and furthering the principles of the game of golf.

Mah Jongg

Gather with neighbors to play this popular game.

Mental Health Awareness and Learning

Feeling isolated while dealing with mental health issues is common, but you're not alone. This club supports those who feel isolated or want to understand mental health better. Open to children, teens, and adults, we offer psychoeducational sessions on various disorders, their symptoms, and treatment options. Our meetings connect individuals experiencing similar challenges, ensuring no one feels alone. Join us to gain support, knowledge, and a sense of community.

Of Wings and Men

Provides men who have a child with special needs an opportunity to get together with others who share a unique life perspective.

Puzzle Club of Eastmark

This group is all about sharing our latest puzzles, discussing the best ways to mount or frame them, talking about our favorite puzzle manufacturers, and trading puzzles with fellow members. Don't forget to join us for our quarterly trading events and biannual competitions.

Seniors' Social Club

If you're a senior living with your children or family here in Eastmark, join this club to meet and socialize with other seniors who have similar living arrangements.

Veteran & First Responder Cohort of Ellsworth

A group established for these communities, by those in the community. We aim to provide service members and first responders of all careers, timelines, and creeds to come join us for coffee chats, events to support local business, fitness workouts, and more. Sometimes, all we need is someone to talk to that can relate—so if you're looking for an amazing group, come on out!

Water Aerobics Club - Seasonal

Meet up with this seasonal club to boost your physical fitness through low-impact exercise in the water. As a club, members share in selecting moves to do.

Wine Club

Bring a bottle of vino and a dish to share at this unpretentious, no swirling, monthly social gathering. Residents rotate hosting in their homes.

Women's Bible Study

A weekly women's gathering for spiritual support and encouragement, as well as a discussion of life experiences.

Women in Eastmark

A group of women is a powerful force to be reckoned with, particularly when they join to support, love, and care for each other. It takes a village (or an Eastmark, if you will) and the goal of this club is to help you identify and build your tribe.
